

Real Estate Project

This is a listing viewing application that allows users to view rental or sale listings of properties, as well as the property's associated information, such as who the homeowner is, which real estate agent is managing the listing, which contractor companies maintain the property, and so on. We are taking privacy and information confidentiality out of consideration and letting the user see as much information as possible